“I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me,” John 10:14.

Mrs. Lavezzi's Class

Here we are in the home stretch! This week we will be talking about taking care of the Earth and bees. We will also get a preview of the musical on Wednesday. In Bible time we will talk about the Great Commission to go out and make disciples. Since we are finished with the alphabet, we will be doing review activities till the end of the year. Next week we will start our final assessments.

Mrs. Burns Class

Mrs. Burns' Classroom
In Bible Time we will be learning about people who Jesus visited after His resurrection. We are so excited to share our musical with you Thursday Night at 6:30. Remember to wear blue! Kindergarten will continue with more letter friends with “th” and “oo” and #30. In math we will learn more about arrays, quarter hours, place value, and polygons. We continue our Farm to Healthy Table unit. Memory – All: Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand. 1st-2nd: that He may lift you up in due time. 1 Peter 5

Mrs. Jackson's Class

Grades 3-4-5 are excited to wrap up April with our musical Thursday, April 28. We are also excited to have our book character day on Friday, April 29. Remember students may wear their book character costumes to school that day.

Grades 3-4-5 also look forward to lots of learning this week. In math, we complete lessons 115-119. In English, we will identify linking and action verbs. In reading, we present our literature circle book reports. We will also plan our book character party for Friday. In social studies we begin researching our states for our state report. We will also wrap up our study of the Southwest. In science, we begin exploring our universe and the different planets. Students will begin a spring bloom project in art. It's going to be a fun week!

Mrs. Uhls Class

This week in math, middle school will complete lessons 103-106. In science, we'll continue our studies on the human body, focusing on the nervous and endocrine systems this week. Students will be creating a poster in the next few weeks that will be a detailed display of one human body system. The due date for their poster is 12 May. In social studies, we'll finish reading chapter 20 this week, and students will take their Renaissance test on Wednesday May 4th.

In art class, we are working on creating Mandalas.

As a reminder, 7th and 8th grade students will be going to the library with Mrs. Jackson this Friday at 9:30 am!

Student of the Week

Alaine Rondi is in 7th grade, and some of her favorite things are sushi, volleyball, history, and the TV show, “Stranger Things.” The best book she's ever read was No Regrets about Levi Ackerman and his life and becoming the world's greatest hero. Her hero is her mom is her coach. She is so nice and always helps her if she needs something and also cooks dinner 😊. A fun time in her life is when she went to Six Flags with her best friend, Emily. They got to go on water slides, roller coasters, and her favorite Batman. God bless Alaine!

Kite Week

We ask that Preschool to Second Graders bring in a kite by May 9. During the week of May 9-13 we will pray for a windy day to fly them here at school. Please label them with your child's name, and we will put them on the gym balcony to await their flying day.

Egg Drop

Our annual Egg Drop Contest will be Friday, May 13, at 2:15 PM. Your egg container must be around 1500 cubic centimeters. Sharpen those geometry skills and pack your egg so that your container when dropped from the gym balcony will keep your egg safe from the fall. All participants receive candy with winners getting to choose their King size candy type. Miriam Wolff still holds the record for the smallest container of 78 cubic centimeters. Wow!

VBS Dates

Our Vacation Bible School will be held June 27-30. Registration forms to follow! Mark your calendars and think about volunteering your time to help!

K-8 Musical

Our students are preparing a wonderful musical called "Heroes of the Faith." We will perform at 6:30 PM on Thursday, April 28. Cast members will have a costume provided for them. All other choir members are to wear some type of blue shirt, any color blue is good.

All School Field Trip

Monday, May 16, we are planning a trip to the St. Louis Zoo. We will leave the school at 8:30 and meet at the North Entrance where you will receive your Adventure Passes. The passes include the Zooline Railroad, Dinoraurus, Conservation Carousel, the 4D Theater, Sea Lion Show and Stingrays. The cost will be $10 for adults and $5 for students. A permission slip is attached and is due with payment by Wed., April 27. The reason we need these early is because we have to purchase our tickets in advance and reserve our spots for that day.

Summer Camp

A wonderful group of camp counselors are planning a summer camp at Cuivre River. 7th-8th graders can sign up for July 4-9, an 5th-6th can sign up for July 10-15 at: tinyurl.com/lutheransummercamp

Online Tuition Payment

We are so excited about our online giving and tuition payments program on our new website: saintpeterslutheran.org. Go to the tab "Online Giving." Enter the amount and then it will give you a screen of what account you would like your giving to go toward.
